The present Report completes the survey of suitable education for young persons up to 18 years of age, and makes certain suggestions for further education. Your Committee have borne in mind the importance of preserving the position that education should develop the individual in all desirable directions: not aim merely at producing technical ability. They recognise clearly that whilst character is of fundamental importance to everybody in the industry, technical instruction though it may be of advantage, is not necessary for each individual. The first question within the scope of this Report...
