Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Teacher s Handbook: Of the City History Club of New York While the City History Club prescribes no definite course of study and leaves to the individual teacher s discretion the selection of topics and the number of lessons to be devoted to a single subject, it has been thought advisable to present here a provisional outline of work, together with references to the most accessible works on the subject. For convenience the work is divided into general topics, each of which is subdivided into separate lessons(17 in all). Teachers following this outline must consider the age and abilities of each class, as well as the frequency of meetings and the length of time devoted to study. The average time allowed for the course is one year. Whenever necessary, however, teachers may still further subdivide the lessons. A few special references are mentioned in connection with each topic. Club illustrations are referred to by number (see pages 22 and23). For fuller titles of books and publishers, seep. 25. Note: Where a lesson is divided into A and Bthese should be made two separate lessons in a two-year course. Topic I. - Geography. Chronology and Geography are the two lamps of History.
