You both are bearing a heavy burden as the crisis deepens. The issues we are considering are matters of life and death, and have serious implications for the welfare of the United States and our allies. But the burden is not yours alone. Congress also plays a role in deciding on the response to a crisis that might involve American forces. It is vital for all of us to understand the choices before us, and, if possible, to reach agreement about how to proceed. I remain deeply concerned about the path the administration appears to be taking in Bosnia. I have consistently said that U.S. military intervention is to be avoided. There could be no Western-imposed military solution to this conflict between ancient enemies with deep historical, cultural, and...
