Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

I524 2008e OCLC Number: (OCoLC)312445643 Subject: Marine parks and reserves -- Law and legislation -- United States. Excerpt: . . . o emphasize resource protection and to provide for consistency in the management of the sanctuaries, H. R. 6537 would formally establish a national marine sanctuary system to be managed by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration in accordance with a clear mission statement that would be added to the Act. Second, H. R. 6537 calls for the inventorying and ecological classification by NOAA of the maritime environment and marine heritage resources under the jurisdiction of the United States based upon guidelines to be developed in consultation with the coastal states and territories, the Indian tribes and the regional fishery management councils, among others. H. R. 6537 would allow for additional sanctuaries to be designated. The bill also would provide more realistic timeframes for NOAA to complete management plan reviews and evaluate their effort or their effect to free up more resources to support research, management and education activities. During the course of its oversight, the Subcommittee was informed by NOAA that none of its statutory authorities under the National Marine Sanctuaries Act applied to its management responsibilities as co-trustee of the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands Marine National Monument. To address this situation, H. R. 6537 would amend the National Marine Sanctuaries Act to ensure that NOAA can fulfill the Agencys management responsibilities as a co-trustee of the worlds largest marine protected area. Finally, several stakeholders maintain that the regulation of the fishing within marine sanctuaries is in need of clarification. H. R. 6537 would amend the existing Section 304 process to clarify the Secretary of Commerces authority to determine the need for...
