Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: .race, intelligent conditions and traditions are of no advantage to either people. e The position of Senator Cummins upon reciprocity with Canada is rather amusing. The Senator is willing to agree to any reciprocity agreement, however much the farmer is hurt, provided the manufacturer is also crippled. The Senator always was a specious reasoner.--Enid (Okla.) Events. Predigested Tariff Tinkering. In the New York World s report of the Taft reciprocity speech at Chicago last Saturday night we find the following: One of the hits in the President s opening remarks at Orchestra Hall was a frank explanation of why the treaty had come to Congress as a completed document by the State Department, in the words of its critics, instead of being framed after consultation with members of the House or Senate. Had there been such a series of conferences, Mr. Taft started, the treaty s...
