Tennyson. There are many who, honestly seeking after the truth, ask (and ask not seldom) - How far is it true? Was there a conspiracy, and if so with what object? and the voice of the jealous enemies of the British Empire answers from their unseen habitations No! For this reason we purpose in the following pages to quote from such men as may be trusted in this regard, not from men across the ocean whose eyes have seen the Boer only on paper; not from men who are biased against the Afrikaner; not even from men who are neutral, but from those whose voices have weight among the Boers and Afrikanders, and from their own mouths shall proceed the evidence upon which they may be judged. The publications most frequently referred to...
