THE REAL 'DAD'S ARMY': THE WAR DIARIES OF COL. RODNEY FOSTER

Penguin Books Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Real 'Dad's Army': The War Diaries of Col. Rodney Foster, Rodney Foster, Rodney Foster's "The Read Dad's Army" is the true-life account of Britain's Home Guard. "Who do you think you are kidding Mr Hitler?" Not Colonel Rodney Foster, a platoon commander of the Kent Home Guard. "Dad's Army", the iconic comedy series is as well-known today as it was forty years ago. But the reality of life in the Home Guard was often very different. Here, for the first time, is the full inside story of the Home Guard, the ragtag volunteer army that defended the coast of Britain from German invasion during the Second World War. Colonel Rodney Foster, who retired to Hythe in the south of England after a military career in British India, joined the Home Guard in 1940 and kept a diary every day - a highly illegal act at the time - and in it meticulously chronicled his service in the real "Dad's Army". He records with a unique wit and wisdom the everyday details of family life during the war: the domestic routine dogged by air raid warnings, the antics of soldiers stationed nearby taking every chance to improve their lot, the quiet strength of a small community faced with great adversity. "It's magical". ("Dan Snow, The One Show"). "If you lament the demise of the stiff upper lip, this is the book for you". (Dominic Sandbrook, "Evening Standard"). Shaun Sewell is an avid antique dealer and social historian. Shaun lives and works in Northumberland. Rodney Foster was born in India in 1882 and spent his career in the Indian Army. In his retirement he went with his wife and daughter to live in Saltwood, near Hythe on the Kent coastline. Here in...
