Ramen is loved all around the world, but unfortunately existing guide books do not contain any information on really delicious ramen. Our mission is to introduce information on real Japanese ramen, as well as various other related topics. As you can see from the content, our page layouts and design are distinctly different from other such guidebooks. We introduce info on the types of noodles, the sauces used in the soup, as well as the richness and strength, etc., and we feature a great number of photographs and specific reports covering even the most finely detailed information.
